

Whiskey Brands from South Africa

Wild Reeds™ Blue Bourbon Cask Whiskey
in a patented Africa shaped bottle
6 per case

Tasting Notes

Dark full gold color, strong sense of aged oak, infused with vanilla with a delectable coffee aroma. Finish is long and warming with an interesting soft grain character!

Produced in distinctive Copper Pot Stills and aged in previously used American whiskey casks.

Xplosion™ Cinnamon Whiskey

Packed 1 liter in a trapezoidal pouch with tap

In the African evening at parties, people speak of Morimi, the Fire Goddess who invokes the spirit of flames to burn the earth to prepare for purification of the fields. This same vitality can be found in Xplosion™, South African Whiskey infused with exploding cinnamon flavor as your taste buds start savoring the flame.

An unforgettable pleasant taste experience throughout the night often followed by a bar chaser.
